St. Jago de la Vega, Nov. 26, 1722.

The Speech of his Excellency Sir Nicholas Lawes, Kt. Governor of Jamaica, &c. to the Honourable the Assembly, on Saturday the 17th of November, 1722.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Assembly,

NO W I have pass'd the Law for the Security and Defence of the Country, and that for the Publick Fast, which I hope we all shall most religiously observe, and like good Christians forgive, as we hope to be forgiven, all Manner of Trespasses. I have Reason to expect, and to depend upon it, that you will immediately provide for the King's Officers and Soldiers, as usual.

And that you will appropriate the out-standing Debts, or find some other Way to ease the Burthen, and support the Honour of His Majesty's Revenue.

These Things, among others, I recommended to you at our first Meeting; and you, Gentlemen, by your Address, have engaged yourselves to perform.

Therefore, suffer me to recommend to you the Dispatch of those two Bills without Loss of Time, and then you may be confident, I shall be glad to pleasure you in any Thing agreeable to my Duty, for the further Service of this Country; and to that End, I think it proper to remind you of a Bill to settle the Windward Parts, and to make some honourable Provision for the Reception of the Duke of Portland, who you know may be expected every Day.

To his Excellency the Governor.

The humble Address of the Assembly.

May it please your Excellency,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Assembly of this His Majesty's Island of Jamaica, return you our unsighed Thanks for your Speech to us of the 17th Instant, and assure your Excellency, we will give the utmost Dispatch to the several Affairs you then recommended to us; and that you may perceive our Readiness to enter into such Measures as might be most conducive thereto, we beg Leave to refer your Excellency to our Minutes of that Day, having an entire Confidence that you will joyn with us to do every thing which may be for the Good and Welfare of the Country.

Passed the Assembly,

Petersburg, Jan. 29. It is expected that an Order will be sent hither for the fitting out some Men of War, and to raise five new Regiments, of which Prince Gallitzin is to have one, and the others given to Officers who are most experienced. Young Prince Menzikoff has got the Regiment of Dragoons which was formerly his Father's; and 'tis said will succeed him in several other Employments. Expresses arrive frequently here from Moscow with fresh Instructions to be sent to our Minister at Stockholm. The Czar's Patent for establishing an Archangel Company being transmitted hither, they have paid according to their Promise 100,000 Rubles. Whether Peace or War is to be the determined State between the Czar and the Ottoman Poste, remains yet a doubt; the latter is much apprehended. The Russian Clergy here have a mighty Quarrel upon their Hands with the reformed Clergy concerning Privilege, which can hardly be decided but by the Czar himself; the Generality of the former Body engage their Brethren with a Prelatical Haughtiness natural to the Temper of Rome, and to Prelates of the Romish Party; but the others proceed in the Conquest with a Meekness truly Christian, such as becomes their Function and makes it respected.

Rome, Jan. 23. On the 18th Instant the Pope gave Audience to the Envoy of the Republick of Ragusa, who represented to his Holiness the Threatnings that Republick lies under from the Turks, the severe Augmentation of the Tribute which is exacted from it, and several other Matters: Upon which he solicited the Pope's Assistance to enable them to put their City in a Condition of Defence, that it might not be taken at the first Onset. It appears that the intended Promotion of Sig. Bichi, (Nuncio in Portugal) to the Cardinalate, goes rather backwards every Day than otherwise: The King of Portugal insists, that the Nuncio shall be assured of the Purple before he lays down his Nuncioship; the Pope, he does not Care to have his Hands tied up in an Affair that entirely depends on his own Authority; so that at present the Matter is not in the best Situation between the two Courts, and 'tis feared may occasion a Rupture. A Dispute has happened upon a Point of Ceremonial between Cardinal Althan Viceroy of Naples, and the sacred College; the Matter of the Dispute was about the Letters of Compliment and Congratulation which usually pass between them at Christmas, in which the Cardinal has followed the Method observed by secular Viceroys; the Congregation for Matters Ceremonial has determined, that no Answer should be returned to the Cardinal's Letter. ---- But several Cardinals it seems had done it before. ---- The Squabble between this Court and the Republick of Genoa, upon Occasion of the Doge's going into a Convent of Friars, attended by a Train of several Persons, is also accommodated, the Republick having promised their Doge shall do no more; and that those Persons who went into the Convent are to use proper Means for quieting their Consciences upon Account of the Excommunication they apprehend to have incurred.

Barcelous, Jan. 30. All the Batteries on the Frontiers towards France are taken away, and the Troops that guarded them are marched back to their former Quarters, so that Commerce is now open again with Rouffillon and Languedoc. An Ordinance will soon be published for admitting Ships from Provence into any Port of this Kingdom, provided they are not laden with suspected Goods. Knights of Malta arrive here daily from all Parts of the Kingdom; but they wait for positive Orders from the Grand Master before they embark for that Island.

The Trustees of the Harburgh Lottery, give Notice, that they have paid back all the Money for the Tickets that were out except a very inconsiderable Number; those therefore who are possessed of any of the few remaining out, are earnestly desired to bring 'em in forthwith, it being both unreasonable and inconvenient that Gentlemen should be obliged to give Attendance for the trifling Number not yet brought in. In Justice to Dr. Croft's successful New Method in curing the Small Pox, I take this Opportunity of acquainting the Publick that I am indebted to that ingenious Gentleman for the judicious Care he has bestowed upon my Son, who was most dangerously afflicted with that Disease, having the Conflux and Malig-nous Kind, attended with violent Convulsions for the Space of six Days, when the extreme Danger my Child was then in upon Account of having some of the Small Pox in his Throat, which threatened every Minute to choke it, made me apply to him for Relief, like a Man in Danger who catches hold of every little thing he meets with, in Hopes of saving himself; for I confess I gave but little Belief to what was published in the News-Papers about this famous Method, and I should hardly have ventured had I not been much importun'd to try; but as the Success has crown'd the Work, I thought proper, for the Good of others, to make this publick Acknowledgment. N. B. He that mis-tells the Truth hereof, may be satisfied at my House, over-against the Peacock, in Beer-lane, Tower-street.
